The Joint Commission on Public Ethics ("JCOPE") will be offering registered lobbyists and client filers training on the new Source of Funding and Reportable Business Relationship disclosure requirements starting next month. Those subject to the new disclosure requirements are required to make the disclosures in client semi-annual reports, next due on January 15, 2013, as well as lobbyist registrations.

Training for the new requirements will be conducted by JCOPE's staff in Albany from 10 a.m. until Noon on Tuesday, December 11 and Thursday, December 13, 2012, in the Commission's ground floor meeting room at 540 Broadway. Training will also be conducted in New York City on Thursday, December 20 from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. in the fourth floor "AB" conference room at 90 Church Street. The December 11 session in Albany, which is now at capacity, will be webcast live from a public (no registration required) link available on the www.jcope.ny.gov web site. Space is limited and seating is reserved for registered lobbyists and client filers only on a first come, first served basis.

To register for the December 13 Albany session or the December 20 New York City session please RSVP no later than Friday, December 7 to education@jcope.ny.gov with your name, your contact information and your affiliation. If you have any questions or concerns that you would like specifically addressed at these sessions please include them with your RSVP, or at any time, to the same e-mail address.

Registration for a seat at these sessions is required and seating is limited. Those who do RSVP will be contacted to confirm attendance at their preferred session.
