

Academic Extension Application

Use this form to apply for an extension of time for filing an "Annual Statement of Financial Disclosure" for calendar year 2011 due to justifiable cause or undue hardship, or based on a request for automatic extension of time to file with the Internal Revenue Service.

The Joint Commission on Public Ethics

540 Broadway, Albany, NY 12207

(518) 474-4522

| | | | |
|------------------|-------------------|----------------|--|
| NAME | | E-MAIL ADDRESS | |
| TELEPHONE NUMBER | | AGENCY | |
| HOME ADDRESS | NUMBER AND STREET | | |
| | CITY, STATE & ZIP | | |
| WORK ADDRESS | AGENCY | | |
| | NUMBER & STREET | | |
| | CITY, STATE & ZIP | | |
| | JOB TITLE | | |

"X" type of extension for which you are applying:

An extension based on justifiable cause or undue hardship. A statement explaining such justifiable cause or undue hardship must accompany this application.

An automatic extension of time based on an application to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for an automatic extension of time to file your individual income tax for 2011. Attach a copy of the application made to the IRS. Indicate by number and letter, on the line below, which questions you are unable to answer based on the automatic extension with the IRS.

◆ A Financial Disclosure Statement completed except for those questions listed below must be filed with The Joint Commission on Public Ethics by November 5, 2012.

▶ _____

Enter the day by which you intend to comply with the filing requirement:

_____, 2012

Applicant's
Signature _____

Date _____

NOTE: This application, with all appropriate attachments indicated above, must be post-marked or hand-delivered no later than November 5, 2012 for the forms due to be filed on November 15, 2012. Any individual required to file after November 15th may submit an extension application within 30 days prior to such filing date.

LATE OR INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS SHALL NOT BE CONSIDERED.